Or View the Webcast on your Computer Desktop

Attend this comprehensive annual program and receive current information about the courts and the Ontario Municipal Board, land use planning changes, new rules and changing role of Conservation Authorities and other issues that affect your busy municipal practice. Our condensed six-minute format will highlight the key developments and provide in-depth reference material that you can consult in your day-to-day work.

You will learn about

- OMB mediation — an alternative to winner takes all!
- conflicts of interest and changes to the City of Toronto Act, 2006
- impact of the Ontario Water Resources Act on municipal lawyers
- zoning versus heritage — who wins and do the old rules still apply?
- revised Brownfield regulation
- changes to the Building Code Act, 2002
- complying with the Law Society's client identification and verification requirements
