"So much info from an incredible array of speakers."

Brigitte Sachse, RTR Media Inc.

The world of arts and entertainment – whether it be music, film, television, live theatre, games or books – can be very creative and exciting. It is also a very challenging and complex environment particularly for those working behind-the-scenes. If you are working in the industry, as a producer, business affairs professional, artist or lawyer, it is essential that you have a solid understanding of the legal aspects of your work. The Osgoode Certificate in Entertainment Law was created to provide those with or without a law degree with a comprehensive and practical overview of entertainment law in Canada.

Now in its fourth year, led by Program Director Susan Abramovitch, and taught by a highly distinguished faculty of experts drawn from the music, film, television, gaming, live stage events and publishing industries, this Certificate covers the key principles you need to know, together with practical insights, strategies and tactics for tackling the most pressing issues in entertainment law. This is a one-of-a-kind opportunity to acquire a comprehensive overview, and to "drill down" into the key issues and challenges that you will likely encounter. You will also receive materials prepared by OsgoodePD's expert faculty which will serve as a valuable ongoing resource.

Don't miss this exclusive opportunity to get insights and advice from over 25 of Canada's top entertainment law experts on what it takes to navigate the pitfalls and get deals done.

THE CURRICULUM

DAY 1

Monday, January 25, 2016, 9:15 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

The program begins with a “big picture” panel presentation that will set the stage for the next five days. This panel will give you a top-level understanding of what it takes to get a deal done in each of the music, film, television and gaming industries. Experts will cover:

- Key players in the industry
- Types of deals
- Rights involved in negotiating a deal

Panelists will then drill down what you need to know to negotiate and draft talent contracts. Specifically, the panelists will discuss:

- Special issues to consider when negotiating with writers, actors and directors, including:
 - compensation
 - term
 - non-competes
 - cross-branding
 - perks
- Understanding the impact of guild agreements
 - how the collective bargaining process works
 - the effects of guild agreements when minimum standards are exceeded

Faculty

John Robinson, Counsel, Entertainment One Television

DAY 2

Tuesday, January 26, 2016, 9:00 a.m. – 4:15 p.m.

Day 2 will pick up where the first day left off and continue to examine the essentials of negotiating and drafting talent contracts, specifically in the music industry. The panelists will discuss:

- Collective Administration in Music
 - what music rights lend themselves to collectivization
 - how tariffs in music are set
 - how collective rights translate into royalties for artists

The focus will then shift towards an understanding of who owns rights to the various art forms, how these rights are acquired and what can be done to protect these rights. Days 2 & 3 will drill down on these issues in significant detail in order to ensure that you have a thorough appreciation of the issues involved, including:

- The effect of the “Copyright Pentology” on the rights of artists, producers and distributors
- The rights that construct the chain of title and how to avoid common drafting pitfalls that would undermine the chain
- How to effectively navigate the clearance process, including:
 - finding the source of a right
 - requesting a clearance
 - understanding the timing involved in clearances and factoring this into other production decisions
 - what to do when a clearance is not approved
 - the lawyer’s role in reviewing the clearance reports and insurance forms and the risks inherent in the process

DAY 3

Wednesday, January 27, 2016, 9:00 a.m. – 4:30p.m.

Day 3 will begin with a look at the publishing and theatre industries with a particular focus on the following topics:

- An overview of the difference between full publishing, co-publishing and publishing administration agreements and when each should be used
- Key clauses in book publishing contracts:
 - rights granted
 - electronic rights
 - foreign rights
 - reversions

- The underlying rights to be considered in live stage agreements when the material is in the public domain, copyrighted or commissioned under copyright
- Theatre venue agreements and investor and grant agreements

You will then hear from a panel of legal practitioners and business leaders with respect to social media and emerging law. This session will explore the various common legal issues facing businesses engaged in social media.

The remainder of the day will consist of an in-depth session on film and television agreements, taught by experienced producers, lawyers and entertainment executives. This panel will provide you with a thorough understanding of the details you need to consider when negotiating or drafting various types of agreements.

DAY 4

Thursday, January 28, 2016, 9:00 a.m. - 4:45 p.m.

Day 4 begins with a look at the foundations of an entertainment agreement and the boilerplate clauses that are commonly used, such as those relating to:

- Representations and warranties
- Indemnification provisions
- Choice of law/choice of venue
- Assignment of rights
- Termination

The examination of entertainment agreements will continue with a specific focus on the music industry. Experts will discuss the differences between licensing and distribution agreements in music, including the rights granted and allocation of responsibilities for marketing, promotion and recording.

In the afternoon, the program will begin its focus on how to maximize and understand your profits. You will learn from those who control, count and analyze the money earned and spent in the Canadian entertainment industry. They will discuss what you need to know to ensure that you are maximizing your ability to receive government funding and benefit from the tax credits available.

DAY 5

Friday, January 29, 2016, 9:00 a.m. - 4:45p.m.

Day 5 concludes the program's look at how to maximize your money and understand your profits. It will include discussion about what you need to know when financing a co-production the different tax credits available, how they relate to the CAVCO points and how to structure agreements to maximize your benefits.

The day will also have a session focusing on alternate Canadian film financing structures. Topics will include:

- The pros and cons
- Domestic "Canadian content"
- CRTC co-ventures
- International treaty co-productions
- Service productions

The program will then conclude with a look at gaming and cross-over rights followed by a panel discussion on various issues encountered by in-house counsel in the entertainment industry.
