Significant amendments to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act and Personal Property Security Act are expected to come into force in 2008. These reforms will have a major impact on your bankruptcy, insolvency and debtor-creditor practice. Are you up to date? Learn about the changes to automatic discharges, consumer proposals and student loans. From defending a debtor to using the commercial list, this program will provide you with important information about key developments in the law.

Topics include:

- Creative strategies for collection
- Secured creditor's remedies
- Mortgage enforcement — commencing and defending an action
- The expired Writ of Seizure and Sale or Notice of Garnishment — are you too late to renew?
- Personal Property Security Act reform
- Directors' and officers' liability
- The Commercial List
- The new Wage Earner Protection Program Act (WEPPA) — what does it mean?
- Practice and procedure before the Bankruptcy Court
- New government claims provisions
- New RRSP and surplus income provisions
- The accidental tourist — a guide to discharge hearings

Speakers include:

The Honourable Mr. Justice Stanley J. Kershman, Superior Court of Justice

The Honourable Mr. Justice Geoffrey Morawetz, Superior Court of Justice
