Intellectual Property at Goodmans LLP = Smart Thinking

The services provided by Goodmans' intellectual property group are a critical element in the business strategy of many of our clients. Our IP clients represent the full spectrum of business activity, including knowledge industries, broadcasting and publishing, pharmaceutical, medical-device research, biotechnology, high technology, retailing, sports, entertainment, food and beverage and service industries.

Goodmans has won numerous landmark cases in the IP area. Extensive work in licensing and promotional agreements led The Globe & Mail newspaper to describe us as the country's premier practice in this area. Lexpert Legal Directory has recognized the reputation and strength of our Intellectual Property Litigation practice. We have assembled a dynamic group of professionals from diverse practice and industry specialties to deliver wide-ranging IP services to our clients in the acquisition, commercialization, enforcement and defence of intellectual property.
